

Taxi to Disneyland

Once again, the Water Conservators raised money at a lunch-time collection sufficient to support the Hackney Carriage Drivers Company by sponsoring a taxi to take a families of sick children to spend an amazing few days at Disneyland in Paris.

This is the 16th year of this remarkable event. The City was represented by the Lady Mayor and Sheriffs, and the Company by Warden Barry Dennis, who confesses to having enjoyed a “jolly good breakfast” with the families.

The Blues and Royals band were there playing music to add to the atmosphere of the great cavalcade of taxis as it set off from Canary Wharf.
