

11TH INTER LIVERY SHROVE TUESDAY PANCAKE RACES

Held in the Guildhall Yard Tuesday 17th February 2015

THE WORSHIPFUL COMPANY OF POULTERS

In conjunction with The Cook and The Butler

And by kind permission of the Chief Commoner

The Worshipful Company of Poulters extended thanks to all who participated on such a lovely day for February.

The Water Conservators were gamely represented by Carolyn Roberts, Thames Warden Peter Hall standing in for Master Roger North and Court Assistant Mark Lane.

A very well disguised Walbrook Warden, Mike Williamson won the Novelty Dress prize - competition as a very colourful chicken with a fine drumsticks ! For such achievement and honour Mike has confirmed the Water Conservators place for a full team next year.

Well done Mike!

A note in your diaries - next year, Shrove Tuesday will be Tuesday 9th February.

RESULTS

THE MASTERS' QUALIFYING RACE

TOBACCO PIPE MAKERS AND TOBACCO
BLENDERS; ACTUARIES;
CARMEN; SOCIETY OF YOUNG FREEMEN;
ENVIRONMENTAL CLEANERS

THE MASTERS' RACE

TYLERS AND BRICKLAYERS

THE LIVERY RACE

BUTCHERS

THE LADIES RACE

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGISTS

THE NOVELTY RACE

TYLERS AND BRICKLAYERS

VICTOR LUDORUM

BUTCHERS

and prize for the best NOVELTY DRESS??

WATER CONSERVATORS !

*Right: Walbrook Warden, Mike Williamson in his Fancy Dress heat, after winning first prize for his fantastic outfit and great legs !
Very well done Mike!*

Above: & Below Thames Warden, Peter Hall in his heat for the Masters Race

Above: Thames Warden, Peter Hall lines up for a photo before the heats for the Masters Race

